Lori Lundin, Co-Anchoring America's Radio News Network's Live Noon - 3 p.m. News Block EST Weekdays

ARNN now providing three, 3-hour news blocks – 9 hours back to back radio news – combined with TRN-E's America's Morning News – to make a total of 12 hours of all-news coverage available to stations nationwide.

Washington D.C. – America's Radio News Network (ARNN) announces that Lori Lundin is co-anchor on ARNN's Noon – 3 p.m. EST, long-form news block Monday through Friday. ARNN delivers non-partisan, fast paced, co-anchored news coverage, live news coverage from Noon to 9 p.m. Monday thru Friday, providing 9 hours of back-to-back radio news programming to affiliates nationwide (EST).

Prior to joining ARNN and before Lundin was anchoring mornings on Fox News Radio, she was a reporter on Heritage News Talk 1530, KFBK, Sacramento, CA. Lundin received the Northern California, Radio and Television News Directors Association, award for her breaking news coverage while reporting for the station.

Lundin is known for her authoritative delivery covering the expanse of international, political and social issues of the day along with her writing abilities and creative use of sound. Lundin has traveled extensively through Central and South America along with South East Asia and brings with her knowledge learned during her travels around the world.

John McCaslin, ARNN's Executive Vice President, News and Programming, says, "I first heard ARNN's new co-anchor, Lori Lundin when she was anchoring top-of-the-hour and breaking news stories on Fox News Radio. ARNN is extremely fortunate to have somebody of her caliber join the team – a news anchor who possesses a rare, unwavering reputation for accurate, complete, and unbiased reporting. Lori Lundin is the exception, not the norm, for members of the Washington Press Corps."

Mark Masters, CEO of ARNN, and its representative, Talk Radio Network Syndications Ltd. says, “We welcome Lori Lundin as co-anchor of ARNN’s 12 to 3 p.m. 3-hour news block. She is a veteran radio news anchor bringing years of experience, reporting breaking news stories and events, to our all-news syndicated radio network. The news block format allows Lundin to cover 10 to 12 stories with 4 to 6 audio actualities every 15 minutes – meaning the perfect PPM solution for our A.D.D. world.” Masters continues by saying, “Stations love the long-form news product so much they are asking for more of it, sooner. We are stunned by the high demand!”

America’s Morning News (AMN), airing from 6 a.m. to 9 a.m. Monday through Friday is another 3-hour long-form all-news program option, presented by The Washington Times and Talk Radio Network Entertainment. ARNN’s programming blocks combined with AMN makes a full 12 hours of weekday long-form all-news programming available to affiliates across the nation. AMN airs on over 120 affiliates, with 15 of those in the top 30 markets, including: Los Angeles, San Francisco, Dallas, Boston, Washington, D.C. and Seattle.

ARNN is planning to launch a 4th 3-hour news block before year’s end. That news block combined with ARNN’s other news blocks, Talk Radio Network Entertainment’s and TWT’s America’s Morning News, will then provide 15 hours of back to back syndicated long-form co-anchored news programming to affiliates who may be considering a turn key all-news syndicated solution.

America’s Radio News Network and TRN Entertainment’s/The Washington Time’s America’s Morning News are exclusively represented by TRN Syndications, Ltd. Reserve your market now at 888-383-3733 or visit ARNN online and listen to the all-news programming at <http://www.AmericasRadioNewsNetwork.com>.
